Elizabeth Charles Emerging Artist Scholarship

Elizabeth Charles believed in the arts as a vehicle for self-expression and as a means to develop a deeper understanding of our humanity. As a student, Elizabeth actively championed human equity and diversity. In 2020, the Lansing Art Gallery & Education Center and Elizabeth's father, Norm Charles, established the fund in her honor.

Initial funding has been provided by Norm Charles and Phyllis Mellon, as well as additional funders who seek to continue her championship by supporting emerging Michigan artists and amplifying their voices through monetary award and promotions.

Application Guidelines and Purpose

The Elizabeth Charles Emerging Artist Scholarship is designed to support emerging artists studying the visual arts, artists seeking to establish a professional presence, or artists seeking to enhance an emerging presence. Preference will be given to artists with a vision for or emphasis on enhancing awareness and equity across race, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, or ethnicity. Annually awarded funds provide access to up to $1000 through a competitive award.

To Donate to the Elizabeth Charles Emerging Artist Scholarship Fund

Checks in any amount may be made to the Capital Region Community Foundation (CRCF), Elizabeth Charles Emerging Artist Scholarship Fund (Fund 623).
